Bowls News:

Great 8's

Massive congratulations to the Open 1 side on winning the Round Robin finals at Chermiside at the weekend. The Finals were held over 2 days and the whole team bowled magnificently. They won all three games and only dropped one rink in the process. They started off with a massive 10-0 thumping of Mooloolaba, who had won the qualifying section. This was the same Mooloolaba side who had beaten both our Open sides in qualification. They were simply blown away by superb bowls from all of our players. The overall margin of 84-41 didn't flatter in any way.

Next up was a 6-4 victory over Brisbane side, Lowood. Robyn McAnelly and Dallas Furner winning a thrilling Pairs encounter by one shot on the very last end. Notably due to club Chairman Dallas Furner, putting his first bowl right on top of the Jack and it stayed there throughout despite the best endeavours of the opposition to shift it.

Going into day 2 in a strong position, they not only won, but once again smashed the opposition out of sight. Securing a 10-0 with a 68-36 margin was the icing on the cake and means for the second year in a row the club have won the Open Regional title.

It is a fantastic achievement to win back to back titles and even more pleasing when you consider that last year it was won with a team of 6 Men and 2 Ladies. This year it was completely switched around and had 6 ladies and 2 Men. This shows the strength and quality of the bowlers we have in both sections.

Tara Ferrier, Tony McAnelly, Robyn McAnelly, Dallas Furner, Kelsey Wade, Sandra Boyce, Lynne Stewart and Kathy Burgess were truly immense all weekend and should be rightly delighted with their performances. A special mention for the selectors – John Spiteri, Eric Bolesworth, Mark Walker, Billy Beattie and Sandra Boyce. We have had another successful tournament and credit needs to go to them all for the team selection policy and hard work put into making the decisions. Thank you to the rest of the main board for their support of this competition. Onwards and upwards – Pennant season starts in 17 weeks!!
